

" I love travel, I love animals, I love Nature in all its forms. I love to lose myself in the vineyards, admiring the fruits of Nature and finding amazing the human touch when it's so synergic with Nature itself. The interaction between man and the world of grapes is both ancientand exciting ... just like the goldsmith technique I use for the realization of my creations.

Eleonora Ghilardi

Over the years Eleonora Ghilardi has have several opportunities to visit many wineries. In this way she could realize that the passion of people that produce wine is the same that she feel in making her jewels.

Creating a collection dedicated to "bubbles" is therefore not only the expression of the inspiration born from her excursions into the world of viticulture but also a tribute to people that fully experience this world.
