Lyon-based designer Géraldine Venet will present her transformed silk jewelry for the first time at Maison & Objet (January 2026).

She elevates silk ties and prestigious textiles in collaboration with renowned Lyonnais silk houses, creating contemporary jewelry entirely handcrafted. Each piece is unique or produced in very limited editions, showcasing exceptional textile expertise.

At Maison & Objet, Géraldine Venet will unveil her 2026 novelties:
– a series of signature necklaces, combining silk beads and Bohemian crystal;
– the "Hip-Hop Décalé" earrings, a contemporary and highly trendy asymmetric model.

For this edition of the fair, the designer will also present a textile sculpture, opening her universe to interior designers, prescribers, and high-end hotels seeking exclusive pieces made in Lyon.

Her creations are already featured in several prestigious cultural venues:
– Musée des Confluences (Lyon), Musée des Arts Décoratifs (Paris), and Petit Palais bookstore-boutique (Paris) via Arteum;
– Galerie Racont'ARTS (Lyon), current exhibition Le Bijou contemporain.

Géraldine Venet is seeking B2B partnerships, collaborations with luxury hotels, and distribution opportunities in France and internationally.
