Children tableware set « Worrydolls of Guatemala »

A tableware set to prepare a serene night for the children by telling them the legend of the worrydolls ("quitapenas") of Guatemala, these magic dolls that erase worries and hassles during sleep.

According to the ancestral tradition of the people of Guatemala, when children have worries or sorrows they tell them to their worrydolls before sleeping. Then they put them under their pillow and in the morning sorrows and worries have disappeared!

5 pieces in melamin CE conformed in cotton pouch: plate, bowl, glass and set of 2 place settings (fork and spoon). Design Ana Carrillo. Made in Guatemala.
