

The NapKing is the new Bellavia's brand created to celebrate the various world of napkins. A brand with a contemporary attitude to satisfy the needs of our customers with their different characteristics, thanks to the achievement of high standards of quality and elegance.

Through the research of the best linen and skilled labour, executed entirely by hand, The NapKing offers a range of solutions within featured processing, even customized.

Exclusive products, with extremely limited editions that, for some of them, creates unique collector's items.

For the variety of the embroidered subjects, all the napkins sets contained in "The NapKing box", are perfectly suitable as an original gift idea.

The NapKing also produces place mats and tableclothes, all embroidered by hand respecting the finest embroidery tradition.
