2018 is quickly approaching and with a new year, comes new trends and new colors and also new renovations in some rooms of the house.

By changing the decor of your bathroom you will renovate instantly this space, after all the bathroom is the perfect place to try bold and bright ideas.

While this year was all about warm neutrals, the next year will go dark and edgier or serene and vibrant.

Maison Valentina has chosen the Top Bathroom Color Trends for 2018 in order to help you enter in 2018 in the best possible way.

BLACK IS THE NEW NEUTRAL

This next year you will see black everywhere, from black floors to black bathtubs. Black is the perfect shade to add drama to any space and also it matches with any other color.

HARMONIOUS PASTELS

Soft pastels are ready to shine next year, the palette will consist in mint greens and sandy pinks. These hues together will create a perfect harmony into your bathroom.

50 SHADES OF PINK

2018 is going to be the year of the Millennial Pink and its shape-shifts. Pink has earned his place in the palette and has become strong than ever in the world of the interior design.

ENERGETIC YELLOWS AND GREENS

Electric Colors through next year. Go with playful color schemes, don't be afraid to risk and if you always wanted to go with this electric colors then next year will be your year.

METALLICS ARE THE NEW WHITE MARBLES

Metallics aren't consider anymore a dramatic and bold choice, all because they have been considered the "new neutrals". By adding some gold items into your bathroom you are adding a total "white" décor.
