

DRAKE'S RESTAURANT PROJECT DESIGN BY:

MAISON VALENTINA®
LUXURY BATHROOMS

Canadian rapper Drake has just opened a restaurant in Toronto and it's called Pick 6ix.

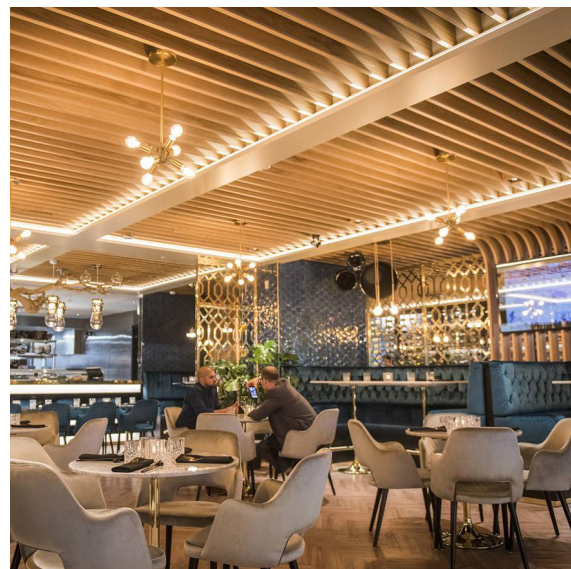

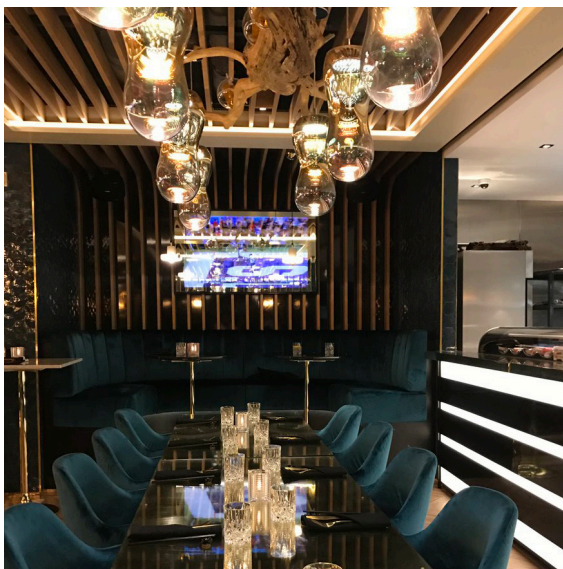

Pick 6ix is a partnership between Drake's record label OVO and Montreal chef Antonio Park's restaurant group. The 178-seat restaurant, with a patio that seats 100 more, will be a cross between a casual restaurant, upscale lounge, and sports bar.

The menu will reflect South American and Japanese influences. There will be a raw bar with seafood platters and sushi, “open-face gyoza” that reference Argentinian empanadas, and “lobster spaghetti à la Montréal,” a decadent dish of butter-poached lobster over veal-beef bolognese and topped with Grana Padano cheese. A braised Korean-style short rib is inspired by a recipe from Park’s great grandmother, Food & Wine reports.

But let's talk about the interiors specially the bathroom's restaurante that was designed by Kroeze Interieur, and it feature Maison Valentina Symphony freestanding.

The Symphony freestanding was inspired by a vision to understand the past and interpret it through cutting-edge technology and contemporary design, we have created this emotional freestand passionately inspired by music. Handcrafted with the finest materials, this breathtaking piece is of genuine style, ensuring mystery and elegance. The golden gives a luxury touch to every bathroom.

In order to understand better this project we had an interview with Paul Kroeze, the principal at Kroeze Interieur.

What was the inspiration behind this project?

The inspiration behind this project was to create a club scene with international allure.

What type of questions do you ask to discover your client's requirements?

We always do our best to understand our clients and to transmit their ideas through the projects, our questions consist in Who are your customers? Tell me some ideas you like? What is your selling product?

When designing a bathroom what is the most important factor for you?

The most important factors for us are the atmosphere, the quality of the materials meaning that we don't look for standard products, we always look for something special that is unique.

Why did you choose Maison Valentina products for this project?

When we were looking for products for this project, we found yours and decided it for it because the brand has special products that other bathroom brands don't have.
