Round Mirrors

When it comes to decor, mirrors are a necessity in any room of your home, including the bathroom. Whether you are looking to makeover your entire bathroom or just want to update your style, why not do it with a fabulous round mirror?

This fall is all about round mirrors, these type of mirrors can do a lot for the space, but particularly they add new dimension. A room's composition is naturally made up of straight lines and right angles, which is what makes a round mirror's silhouette such a welcome addition above a boxy chest or a linear mantel. As always, the bigger the piece the greater the impact.

Brass

Brass is having its moment and chrome has long gone. Sleek designs and minimal detailing ensure the brass look is contemporary and not too vintage. Classic, golden, brass tones that are warm and subtle can elevate your bathroom to chic and pair very well with that monochromatic color scheme.
