RAUM & GESTALTUNG

Welcome to MAOMI

We are a label for space, composition and design. We develop furniture and home accessories and have them produced - locally and globally. We conceptualize renovation projects and accompany them in their implementation.

MAOMI will present selected products at the MAISON & OBJET 2018 trade fair in Paris from

Brand

MAOMI stands for urban design of a special quality. Our products and projects are characterized by a functional simplicity which offers room for creativity. In our designs we are led by body and mind - we discover materials that not only look good but also feel good. We use natural materials and rely on traditional crafting techniques. Our production is fair, ecological and socially sustainable.

MAOMI Product Design

Our products are always completely functional and never exclusively decorative. Our work is subtle and yet confidently radiates our orientation towards quality, details and durability. We take classic design further. Timeless aesthetics, natural materials, reduction and refinement: minimalism receives warmth and design turns into a haptic experience. Each of our products has its own history and origin. With our designs, we strive to convey a sense of life that is reflected in the mindfulness and details of our products. That's why our quality standards go beyond the product. We combine responsible use of natural resources with responsibility for our fellow human beings.

MAOMI Rooms

MAOMI designs and realizes living spaces. We focus on the demands and wishes of our customers. We ask for habits and necessities to adapt room layout, light conditions, insulation or acoustics to existing requirements and new situations. We advise and design to give space to the individual lifestyle. Clarity and space-saving solutions as well as a creative, architectural handwriting characterize our work. Using ecological materials creates a pleasant feel, which ages well and in very high quality. Aesthetic and healthy spaces in unison create a new sense of living.

MAOMI Distribution

MAOMI sells its products exclusively in selected retail stores. In addition, we display the MAOMI products in our showroom in Mannheim and advise on site regarding our product range..
