BOTTI PENDANT BY DELIGHTFULL

BESTSELLERS AT MAISON ET OBJET 2018

HALL 6 | STAND N112 - O111

GALLIANO

Galliano pendant lamp features a modern, sleek design that will complement the decor in any setting. This beautiful uniquely design industrial pendant lighting is simply one more of DelightFULL's top best sellers. The body is covered by gold-plated interior finish, while on the outside they were painted a matte black, which provides a unique pendant lamp. Clean lines and mid-century modern vibe combined with versatility make Galliano a useful delight. All in all, this pendant ceiling light is ideal for a variety of residential and commercial application.

BRUBECK

Inspired by the American jazz Pianist Dave Brubeck, Brubeck pendant lamp is a great example of when art deco design exceptionally meets music. The result of this outstanding creation is a functional handmade lighting design with a sculptural shape. With a standard body built in brass and a gold-plated finish, this hanging lamp is available in a wide range of finishes: gold, nickel or copper plated, brushed brass or nickel, and aged brass. It is an art deco brass lamp that will give a retro chic vibe to your new kitchen counter or even mid-century entryway.

COLTRANE

Coltrane pendant lamp is one of DelightFULL's top best sellers: an industrial pendant lighting design fit for the most demanding setting, with a seal of high-quality craftsmanship only delivered by the best artisans in the industry. Coltrane is a simple suspended ceiling light, which is handmade in steel. It features a steel cord and a magnetic disc at the top, while down below the canopy is built out of stainless steel, with a gold-plated finish. The shade is also made of steel but it is lacquered a matte gold on the outside and a gold powder paint on the inside. Coltrane is a great mid-century modern lamp for more minimalist home interiors, as well as for contemporary hotel decor.
