Tassotti at Maison&Objet 2018

Point of international reference in the sector of decorative multipurpose papers, Tassotti will attend the September edition of Maison&Objet with the aim to keep being a "laboratory of creative printing" and a true expression of "Made in Italy", where experienced hands realize refined and exclusive products.

The decorative paper is still at the heart of the offer, which is completed by a full range of items from pencils and desk objects, to place cards, paper for letters and wish cards. Relevant is also the home decor segment.

And indeed, Tassotti's decorative papers are renowned all over the world for being the best fit for a wide range of uses: they are perfect for origami, decoupage, scrapbooking and elegant gift-wrapping. The paper is solely printed in sheet form on acid-free holder, which ensures its extraordinarily sharp colours. Among the countless patterns available, some reproduce the Eighteenth-century Remondini decorations with a modern twist, while some others come from attentive creative research and prestigious collaborations with illustrators and calligraphers.

Example of great craftsmanship is also the stationary department (boxes, notebooks, index books, album). Entirely handcrafted, the notebooks and the notepads Tassotti stand out thanks to their covers, embellished with the paper patterns Tassotti. Capital and lapel can be coordinated. Different typologies and formats are available: hardback books, light and flexible notebooks with sewing singer point, that fit comfortably in a pocket, besides the classical A4s with metallic point. Those who care about style can create their own writing set with rubbers and pencils en pendant.

The participation in the French fair is also an opportunity to present the 2018 Christams Catalogue. At Tassotti's, Christmas is represented by timeless and authentic imaging, Greek geometries and gorgeous damasks. New paper patterns and items designed for a magical Christmas time, perfect for a unique, outstanding gift. Envelopes and bags, but also gift tags and labels customize each present with style. Daily and weekly planners, calendars and notepad kits will make ourselves memorable all year long. Hand-made boxes of different sizes are the perfect case for particularly precious gifts, and they can be turned into a present too.
