Eyes Rug

Dutch interior & lifestyle brand Maison Deux launches a playful set of hand-tufted rugs: the Eyes Rug. The first in their series of statement rugs. The set of two bold round shaped rugs is hand-tufted and made from 100% pure new wool. The rugs, designed by Pia Weinberg, are finished with different levels of piles to add an extra dimension to the statement rug.

A playful rug

Amsterdam-based designer Pia Weinberg, known for the award-winning Iconic Cloud rocker, created a playful set of hand-tufted rugs for Maison Deux.

The Eyes Rug is handmade from 100% pure new wool and finished with different levels of piles to add an extra dimension to the statement rug.

Besides its function as a decorative item, the Eyes Rug owns a playful element encouraging imagination. The two round shaped rugs, representing two eyes, are fun to play with. Turn around to create different expressions. Look left, right up or dizzy. All eyes on you!

Availability

This September the complete collection of statement rugs will exclusively be presented at Maison & Objet Paris Sept. 7-11. The Eyes Rug will be available this autumn at maisondeux.com.

About Pia Weinberg

After graduating from the Hallo Academy for applied creativity (2010), Pia developed herself as an autodidact designer. Her work is shaped by two values. Minimalism and fun. Work that manifests itself into simple, pure designs with a playful twist.

In 2015 she started the process of product design in her Amsterdam based studio, which resulted in the first line of kids focused products in 2016: the Iconic Rockers. A modern twist on a classic toy. In 2018 the Iconic Cloud rocker received the Platinum A'Design Award.
