PARIS DESIGN WEEK 2018

---

06 - 15 SEPTEMBER 2018
MAJOR EVENTS

The 8th Annual Paris Design Week will take place from 6-15 September 2018. For ten days, the event invites French and international professionals and the general public to discover the best showcases of design in Paris, while the leading talents in the discipline gather in the LE OFF exhibition. This event is an itinerary uniting 250 participants that proudly promote first-rate design in Paris. At a time when new collections are popping up in stores and the new concepts for the autumn season are being launched, the event brings together the talents and forces of retailers, galleries, showrooms, hotels, and restaurants for eight days to share their experience in design and creation with the public.

MAISON & OBJET 2018

07 - 11 SEPTEMBER 2018
MAJOR EVENTS

One of the Top Events taking place during the Paris Design Week is the event Maison&Objet. That's right, the ultimate lifestyle and design event comes back to Paris with a new challenge, one that seeks to completely overhaul its structure, more specifically its sectors: Maison and Objet. These two sectors will be presented from 7-11 September with a brand-new perspective, improving the journey and experience of visitors and professionals alike during the event.

TOP EXHIBITORS 2018

07 - 11 SEPTEMBER 2018
SECTORS

The most amazing thing about Maison&Objet Paris is that it's constantly reinventing itself, year after year! In every edition, whether it is in January or September, it brings new ideas and inspirations, offering its guests a whole new experience. In order to become easier to scout new ideas and inspirations, Maison et Objet has altered its Maison sector, which will now be divided into four new realms to be explored: Unique & Eclectic, Today, Forever, and Craft. Through these four sectors, Maison et Objet will offer styles and trends just as diverse as before, with the assistance of the most exclusive luxury brands within these sectors.

COVET HOUSE HALL 7 | STAND B52-C51

This edition will feature several luxury exhibitors and we have to highlight the presence of notorious brands like Covet House and PullCast. The Covet House stand will englobe every brand from The Covet Group so you can expect to find at this stand all the major furniture pieces form this design group.

06 - 15 SEPTEMBER 2018
SMALL EVENTS

There will be plenty of events occurring around the city. Four of the city's most vibrant districts will celebrate the creative industry: Saint-Germain-des-Prés, Les Halles-Marais-Bastille, Opéra-Concorde-Étoile and Barbès-Stalingrad-Saint Ouen. And for each of them, a special evening filled with exciting private views and events, bringing together the entire design community. One of those pays homage to Japan. Echoing the city-wide event Japonismes 2018, Paris Design Week compiled all events dedicated to Japan into a single itinerary. The high point of the event will be the Eiffel Tower's new lighting designed by mother-and-daughter lighting gurus Motoko Ishii and Akari-Lisa Ishii to evoke the radiance of the rising sun. Exploring both traditional arts and Japan's new technology, it will be an event to remember! The Eiffel Tower, lit up in white, adorned with a red rising sun.

BOFFI PARIS

Boffi Paris continues its transformation and expands its showroom to include a dedicated bathroom space. The two contiguous showrooms – 232 and 234 Boulevard Saint-Germain – provide an 8-metre-long window display opening onto the street. For Paris Design Week, the brand will present a special installation: 80 sqm on two levels showing the latest collections unveiled in April, at the Salone del Mobile. Paris Design Week visitors will have a chance to discover designs created by Piero Lissoni, Keiji Takeuchi and Mikal Harrsen of MA/U Studio for Boffi.

ATELIER MÉRIGUET- -CARRÈRE

Labelled Entreprise du Patrimoine Vivant by the French Ministry for the Economy, the brand has delved into its archives and pulled out a palette of 144 colours. Harmonious shades, high-quality paints... Architects and individual home-owners will find subtle nuances and signature hues hidden behind names like Blanc de Meudon, Alumine and Parchemin. Presented for the very first time in the atelier at 140 Boulevard Saint Germain, where visitors will appreciate the intense matt aspect and depth of the colours, Mériquet-Carrère's colour harmonies were elaborated for high-end interiors and the high-profile designers who imagine them.

LE SALON H

Designed by Yaël Halberthal and Philippe Zagouri as a 21st-century salon, Salon H is a place where people come to show their work and engage in conversation. At Salon H, visitors will find a highly stimulating new concept, a hub that concentrates on unique experiences and backgrounds. It's a place you need to visit during this Design Week. Starting 6 September, the Triode Design gallery in Rue Jacob will host Allied Maker for their very first exhibition in Paris. The New York-based practice, established by Ryden and Lanette Rizzo, designs and manufactures a range of refined and pared-down lights, made by assembling natural materials like brass, glass and solid wood, and exemplifying their unconditional love for artisanal craftsmanship.

DE PADOVA

During Paris Design Week, Italian brand De Padova, which has recently opened a showroom in Rue de la Chaise, in the former Boffi Bains showroom, will present its new products unveiled in April in Milan. This year, the brand has chosen to focus on sofas, with two distinct new propositions Blendy and Erei, respectively designed by Omi Tahara and Elisa Ossino. Using round enveloping lines to counterbalance the thinness of the structure, Tahara and Ossino have successfully translated the spirit of the brand's late founders, Magdalena De Padova and Vico Magistretti.

Each year, AD magazine presents the achievements of talents embodying the strong currents of contemporary decoration. Minimalist, classic or baroque, sometimes even conceptual or arty, the 15 decoration agencies retained by the editorial staff represent the diversity of the styles of the moment. Confirmed interior designers work side by side with the younger creators on whom AD's writing is based. This variety of expressions and profiles brings all its richness to the exhibition.

BISMUT & BISMUT

Architects, Michel and Daniel Bismut tend to the sketch. Since opening their branch Bismut & Bismut in 1985, these two brothers create, in four hands, private interiors and commercial projects with clean lines and fluid circulation. Rigorous spaces modulated by sensual textures, flat colors and graphic furniture.
