This year, the trends coming through for 2018 are actually not only about a new aesthetic or style but also about functionality.

Bathroom designers and bathroom renovators are looking for products that make the bathroom feel more like an oasis or personal sanctuary, that are easier to clean and that will make the bathroom appear larger and stand the test of time in terms of visual appeal and longevity. So, for this winter, Maison Valentina has selected some of the must new trends that you have to look for this season.

NATURAL MATERIALS AND FINISHES

Natural finishes like stone feature heavily in trendy bathrooms in 2018. Incorporating a mix of different finishes will give your bathroom real wow factor, depth and interest. Also, natural stone will bring an individuality to your bathroom, each piece is different so it will add a sense of character and detail, which will help make your space unique.

BRUSHED BRASS FITTINGS

Brushed brass fittings can completely change the feel of the room, add instant luxe appeal and also add a lovely warmth to a room. They also happen to be one of the easiest elements to update, which is great if you're aiming to modernize your bathroom.

OUTSTANDING WASHBASINS & FREESTANDING TUBS

When it comes to bathroom trends, it seems the freestanding bath is here to stay, after all a freestanding bath can be a showstopper in any bathroom. While colored ceramics are increasing in popularity, outstanding basins remain timeless, look for shapes that complement your bathroom look and feel.

BELOVED CERAMICS & MARBLE

Ceramic seems to be everywhere you look when you walk into a bathroom – from the shower, to the floor, and maybe even the walls. But now, marble has been gaining quite a reputation and is being insert in vessel sinks, countertops, among others. Though, people are now opting for marble products of various shapes, patterns, they also are embossing either multicolored or monochrome. This bring originality to their personal oasis.
