

The Highlights of BDNY 2018 – What an exciting weekend we had! BDNY 2018 was a great design tradeshow and an awesome experience for all those looking for the best in hospitality interiors. From the Javits Center to the whole world, Boutique DesignNewYork continues to exceed expectations due to sensational exhibitors and brand new trends.

BDNY connects the most inventive minds manufacturers and the most influential design minds in the hospitality industry for two days of discovery, education and conversation. We are talking about an event that gathers what's best about interior design and, this being said, we couldn't be happier.

Counting nine years of existence, BDNY brings together more than 8,000 interior designers, architects, purchasing agents and owners/developers together with more than 750 manufacturers and marketers of exceptional design elements for hospitality interiors. This is where you find a focused selection of inventive design elements for hotel, restaurant, spa, club, cruise ship and senior lifestyle interiors.

The BDNY Awards are part of the highlights too and we would like to congratulate DEDON (Best In Show), Smith & Fong Co. Plyboo (Architectural Materials), Room360 by FOH (Art & Accessories), Suite 22 Contract (Furniture) and Corbett Lighting (Lighting). Thank you BDNY, we will see you next year!
