Multiforme Dune

With Multiforme Dune, Marca Corona extends its exploration into the world of concretes and resins, presenting a collection inspired by the warm colours of sand and desert that breathes new stylistic life into timeless materials. These are eclectic elements, easy to shape and colour as desired, to create a wide range of designs in response to the most diverse tastes, beyond the trends of the moment.

Multiforme Dune extends the range of the Multiforme collection, offering a new palette of warm shades with soft accents. Colours designed to realise a potentially infinite variety of combinations: mixing the variants of the new collection, or proposing combinations with the many proposals of Multiforme and other Marca Corona collections inspired by different textural looks.

Large 120x278 slabs decorated with trendy natural motifs, sophisticated geometric patterns for outdoor use and fascinating tesserae. The decorative range of Multiforme Dune is developed to express the designer's inclinations at most, personalising spaces with proposals of high scenic impact.

With the Arkistyle stone effect collection, Marca Corona continues its exploration into the world of stones, offering a sophisticated combination of two fascinating variants. A Limestone featured by inclusions of marine fossils just hinted at and blending with the background, and an eye-catching contemporary reinterpretation of Terrazzo, distinguished by the presence of multicoloured flakes, originating a very refined contrasting effect.

Due to the graphic richness and the special size, Esagona stands out as one of the most iconic and distinctive elements of the Arkistyle collection. An option that lends itself to the realisation of original installation solutions, opening the way to multiple possibilities for customising rooms.

Through a reinterpretation of Terrazzo in a contemporary key, and a series of tesserae with a sophisticated geometric style, Arkistyle offers a successful synthesis of natural charm and decorative sophistication. An enrichment of the range that expands the design potential of the collection, for highly customised projects.
