

INTRODUCING NEW HARDWARE
PIECES AT MAISON ET OBJET 2019

PULLCAST

JEWELRY HARDWARE

UNSETTLING DESIGN OF HARDWARE

PullCast invites you to a refreshing journey to its jewelry world at Maison & Object 2019.

The brand will be exhibiting in partnership with LUXXU Modern Design&Living at Hall 8 Stand C85.

“Unsettling Design of Architecture & Decor Hardware, that creates handcrafted masterpiece capable empowering an ambiance into an art concept.”

During Maison et Objet January 2019, Pullcast will introduce its new hardware pieces. These pieces were designed to complement the existing product lines.

Therefore, the Earth, Ocean, Cosmopolitan, Twist, and Limited Collections will be more complete than ever. With its novelties, PullCast becomes even stronger in providing an integrated service to its customers.

To revolutionize the brand's presence in international trade shows, PullCast will be showcasing live the crafts techniques used in the creation process.

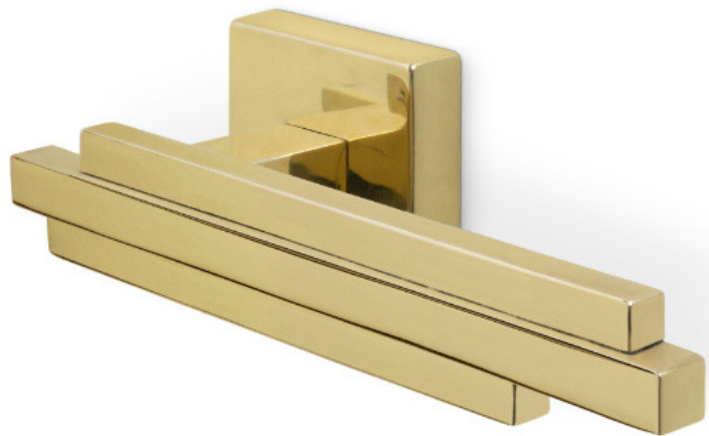

NEW ARRIVALS

SKYLINE CM3017 & SKYLINE CM3018

The Skyline family was designed and inspired by the major metropolis. As an iconic symbol of Cosmopolitan landscape, this product line will be completed by two new pieces, a door lever, and a door pull.

NOUVEAU EA1051

Immersed in modernity and fluidity, is inspired by the Art Nouveau époque. An époque full of distinction and luxury, portraits in this organic shape element full of refinement.

CAVIAR OC2023

Inspired in a world-renown delicacy, harvested from sturgeon and found in the Caspian Sea, the Caviar drawer handle portraits mysticism, exuberance, and luxury in your cabinet hardware choices.

THE FINE ART OF DETAILING

Embodying authentic luxury in one of a kind jewelry hardware concept, Pullcast is a highly distinguished brand with transcendent beauty, bringing an exquisite touch to furniture design with decorative and architectural hardware that will be the exceptional detail that every design needs.

Moving beyond functionality as a singular and unique complement to any environment, Pullcast takes inspiration in timelessness, sophistication, and elegance present in the most unique jewelry designs in order to enrich the hardware industry.

Aiming for excellence, Pullcast works with a team of highly skilled jewelers and designers, complementing profoundly innovative processes with ancient forms of handcraft and a selection of the finest materials to create a sense of rarity and legacy in each piece.
