

Maison&Objet 2019: Our design wins two awards

We at MAOMI are looking forward to the Maison&Objet fair in Paris for two reasons: on one hand our porcelain series KAYA was awarded in the category "BEST OF" by the Operations Department Team MOM. KAYA is the first MAOMI product to be presented in the special exhibition area in front of Hall 6 from January 18th-22nd.

KAYA - Porcelain at its best

On the other hand Francois Bernard and his team from the Paris Agence Croisements have chosen our porcelain KAYA in the category "What`s new" by Francois Bernard. The curating interior designer will present selected plates, cups and bowls of the series in Hall 1.

GRAND KAYA & NOGGI Linen: Upcoming news from MAOMI in 2019

We are pleased our considerations and further developments regarding our products are also positively perceived in Paris. For example, we have added two new sizes to KAYA and have produced two fine linen covers for the NOGGI seat set.

We are prepared and looking forward to our second trade fair appearance in Paris after the successful premiere in September last year!
