

A TOUR INSIDE THE FIERCE
APARTMENT AT THE
MAISON ET OBJET 2019

Maison et Objet January is the first breath of a new design year full of trends.

It is in this marvellous country that BRABBU will show off its natural fierceness and cosmopolitan design. Inspired by the Padaung tribe In Thailand, the Mohawk Indians, the Naicca caves or the Nazca lines, the products are revealing the natural beauty and diversity of the cultures of our world. Armchairs, dining chairs, mirrors, tables or rugs, BRABBU allows to create full interiors and gives a fresh breath to any kind of project. The brand shows its versatility in different styles it incorporates: from vintage to modern, from contemporary to eclectic, the final goal focuses in responding to different needs and desires.

France is welcoming, once again, designers, architects, decorators, investors, journalists and other design lovers for an exclusive design week. Coming from all around the world, brands will take this occasion to show off their inspirations for the year 2019 under the 100% theme "Excuse my French!". The word «France» itself is complementary with the word «Design». During the last centuries, France never stopped to recognize the avant-gardism of renowned designers. In two decades, Maison et Objet didn't stop growing and it is today a reference and a meeting point between the ancestral actors and the new coming of the design world.

Ready to surprise with new products, BRABBU embraces the “room by room” concept for this edition of Maison et Objet. Between the legends of this world, the brand will show the guideline of a cosmopolitan design, inspired by the cultures of our world and the power of nature in an apartment perspective. At Hall 6 Stand H38 - I37 | H48 - I47 a living room, an office, a dining room and even a bedroom will allow the visitors to feel the Intense Way of Living. Also the indoor garden - a space dedicated to celebrate the personality of our natural environment at its most authentic version will be decorated by a central fireplace from FOOGO, while an other division - the bathroom – will reveal secrets from the sea with the KOI Collection from the creative heads of Maison Valentina. Both are sister brands of BRABBU and complement each other to create an extraordinary harmony in every contemporary space. A home cinema will be a relaxing room to complete the sensory experience while enjoying the comfort of BRABBU’s armchairs. To enhance the energy of BRABBU’s products and provide an even wider range of visual identity, well-known brands came to show how fabrics and wallpapers can be a game changer. Christian Lacroix, Armani Casa, Aldeco and Lelièvre will express main BRABBU’s values through sensory design with harmonious colors and memorable textures. Dedar and Sandberg are also a choice to dress up the walls of different divisions with remarkable wallpaper selection.

DAKOTA SOFA

Designer's passion for the worldwide cultures aroused the desire to create DAKOTA Sofa, named after an indigenous tribe of Amazon. Upholstered in soft cotton velvet and with a base in matte aged brass, this velvet sofa will add a dash of luxury to any décor.

BASTEI CONSOLE

Linked by a bridge, Bastei is one of the most famous rock formations in Germany. To honor such outstanding beauty, our designers created BASTEI Console Table. With a table top in glossy walnut root veneer and a base in glossy gold leaf, this modern console table will steal all the attention in a modern interior design.

KANSAS ARMCHAIR

Each Spring, from 1866 to 1885, cowboys drove from Texasto railheads in Kansas. KANSAS Occasional Chair is a tribute to their courage.

NAICCA FLOOR LIGHT

The allure of Mexico's Giant Crystal Cave was the inspiration for NAICCA Floor Light, an accent lamp that represents the legend of crystal origins. The aged brushed brass and the Quartz crystal merge together to fill the room with a strong yet peaceful atmosphere.
