We are proud to present our new SPRING / SUMMER 2019 collection, Daydreams, which for sure will make you daydream of spring and summer. The new collection offers lots of amazing vintage finds and French-inspired designs. You can already now see all the beautiful items you will be enjoying in the upcoming season.

The collection is bursting with the most wonderful spring décor for the garden and home. The selection boasts the most beautiful natural materials, and throughout the collection is a deep respect for nature and product origin with unique series of handmade products, and one-of-a-kind items.

The new collection includes the most beautiful, old and rustic vases and platters in wood, all of which are handmade and unique in their colour, size and finish. - No two items in the series are the same, making them truly one-of-a-kind.

With this collection, we have placed great emphasis on making room for dreaming. You can find the most wonderful garden furniture, along with beautiful textiles, flowerpots and lanterns, which will make your garden a beautiful oasis for daydreaming.

It is certain that the garden or the conservatory will be your preferred hangout once the spring arrives. When your gaze then falls on the beautiful French hanging chair in patinated white cast iron, the sweetest spring sensations will bubble up inside, inviting relaxation and renewed optimism.

In addition, you can look forward to a multitude of new lamps in everything from iron to rattan. In the industrial Factory style, you will find the most beautiful edgy ceiling lamp in metal and glass, as well as a favourite this season, the most beautiful vintage studio floor lamp.

The new collection is characterized by soft colours and a vintage charm. You will find lots of items in the lovely and romantic French country style - some of it with a beautiful twist of an industrial and edgy expression.

When the garden come into flower and the first warm spring sun caresses your face, it's time to celebrate by giving your décor a breath of fresh air and create an dreamy outdoor space for you to enjoy all summer long.

Welcome our newest collection Daydreams.
