L IS FOR... LUXURY! FOR LIFESTYLE! FOR LUXXU!

HALL 8 – STAND C85

18-22 JANUARY

LUXXU is going to Paris once again for yet another edition of the world's most prestigious trade-show, Maison et Objet Paris. This time the luxury design brand is taking not one, not two but over 10 new products to present at the design event, unveiled a stand with XX square meters and a unique concept.

Stepping into the stand is taking a glimpse into LUXXU's universe. A universe of undying inspiration, attitude and irreverence! Lighting and furniture come together and create interiors where lifestyle and luxury play hand in hand. With interiors that fit both residential and contract/hospitality projects.

LUXXU's collection will be more complete than ever with the brand presenting a master bedroom and an office collection in a stand divided into separate areas, each representing a different room, from a glam hotel lobby to a powerful office.

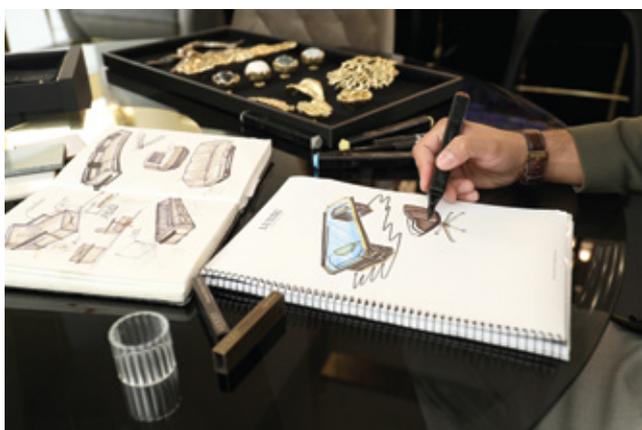

The brand's bold designs are brought to life with the most high-quality materials and finest hand-craft techniques. Customization blossoms as brand capital with the clients being able to choose the desired finishes that better fit the needs of each interior design project.

WHAT'S NEW?

Pharos was an island where once stood a grand lighthouse in ancient Alexandria. Inspired by this ancient wonder, LUXXU has created the Pharo collection. A collection that takes on the architecture of modern lighthouses and becomes a beacon of light to rupture the darkness. The collection includes a chandelier, a wall lamp and another piece to be released at Maison et Objet.

An unparalleled office collection will also be presented at the tradeshow, featuring desks, desk chairs and shelves. No office ever looked as luxurious!
