Maison&Objet 2019

Afolki Berber Rugs exhibits on virtual showrooms MOM.

For the Maison&Objet edition of January 2019 in Paris, Afolki will be present on the virtual showroom of the fair with new and original berber rugs and tuareg mats.

The choice of appear on the virtual portal of the Fair is an opportunity to open and spread on different web platforms the Afolki and to pay attention on a design project which provides the production of new rugs on an exclusive design, keeping the original soul of the berber culture and techniques.

Afolki ,always present on the virtual showroom MOM, is selecting the Beni Ourain, Boucheroite, Azilal, Talsent, berber rugs and the most representative tuareg mats of several collections, visible now on the official website.

Mohamed El Alami, holder and animator of Afolki, who led the passed exhibitions of M&O, remains available for any information on the articles represented as “witnesses of the world” of the berber population’s artistic handicraft.
