_____ A stunning compound

At Madison Avenue amount of design lovers and professionals find inspiration and now they have the possibility to also have unique experience in The Mansion! Here they'll find centerpieces of passionating furniture design. Through the exact selection of the materials used, clients get a feeling of what it means to be part of a real furniture experience.

To escape the hectic everyday life in NY there is an urgent need of having a home where you only enter and feel welcome. The furniture should reflect your passion, your inner person and of course your taste.

Here it's possible for you to realize all this! Are you ready to get a guided tour through this amazing apartment? Let's start this journey!

C o m e i n a n d f e e l t h e h e a r t b e a t

Enter into the big and bright open kitchen. May you will be blinded because of all the light and the glare white kitchen front. What an organized part of the room, all the usual mess of a kitchen hidden behind clean white fronts. And suddenly one golden glittering thing streak the room!

Let us present the Kelly Bar chair, which is inspired by the movie Casablanca, do you see all these stylish and glamorous details? Completely covered in polished brass it's standing there with a massive mainstay. The low back is welcoming everybody does have a comfortable seat and only just enjoy the beautiful view through the luxury living room. Have a seat, have a break.

There next to the huge windows, where you can look through to have this breathtaking view to the tower giants on the other side of the street, your eye caught again something golden glittering. The Blake Shelf marks the center of the living room. With its mixture of glaring modular brass thin regal legs and the use of walnut wood structure grounds, the designer of Essential Home shows us again what interaction of different material can be for, an amazing look!

There is much more space to discover in this big Apartment, so let's get up of this comfortable Bar chair and spot some more. Everywhere some really unique design of furniture is catching your eye, you are a bit overwhelmed.

You can't make it really far, because of this one Sideboard which takes place in the dining area. The Anthony sideboard gives you kind of a flashback! Here Retro design meets contemporary. Directly there so many ideas in your mind where this stunning sideboard produced in solid walnut wood could present. With its white polished marble and the adding of brass square feet it looks very elegant. The geometric shapes meeting organic ones give it a very dynamic look and the brass trims on the frontside make it looks exciting.

Finally, we reach the bedrooms

In one of the four, we find a kind of blue bed heaven. Let's introduce our Sophia bed: with its a soft blue panel and the covering in velvet it's given you the best atmosphere for a bedroom. You get a smooth and sedative effect of it. The extras of brass buttons on both sides let it appear very luxury, this effect is supported by brass square legs. A real retro piece! A serious seduction to put yourself in it...

However, we would recommend ending the tour of the apartment, there are still so many beauties waiting for you. So what are you waiting for? Take all the experience of the art of furniture design!

So if you see Essential Home and the New Yorker Spirit fitting really well together. Unique design meets unique people, such a perfect reunion!
