

MAISON VALENTINA® RUG'SOCIETY LUXURY BATHROOMS

Get Inspired and Meet Some of The Best Italian Interior Designers

Get Inspired and Meet Some of The Best Italian Interior Designers: From minimalists to the luxurious designer, Italy has some of the most talented interior designers of the century. The following list shines a light on some of the most creative, inspiring and defiant professionals of the area, certain to appeal to all tastes.

See also: Get Inspired With Mix-Metals Ambiances

PAOLA NAVONE:

The Milan based interior designer, which grew up in Turin, is known for her colorful and avantgarde interiors, Navonegathers her inspiration from her travels and is particularly inspired by oriental patterns. She has worked with many artists who have stimulated her personal style and rebellious attitude towards interior design, she considers herself a workaholic and has a profound passion for all her projects and designs.

She has worked in many industries as an architect, designer, teacher and business consultant.

LUXURY BATHROOMS

ACHILLE SALVAGNI:

Salvagni, a perfectionist by nature, found in his love for paintings a motivation to pursue his interior designer career, through contrast and subtly he is able to create some breath-taking interiors, mixing textures and combining different elements. His aesthetic combines traditional techniques and luxurious materials.

PATRICIA URQUIOLA:

The renowned designer has a private studio in Milan and began her career by developing luxury furniture for design companies, which shaped her personal style.

As a designer, she is able to combine traditional and modern, reinventing the pieces as she goes, the Maia collection was one of her most noticeable collections which portraits her design vision, clean with a twist.

EMILIANO SALCI & BRITT MORAN:

BRABBU MAISON VALENTINA® LUXURY BATHROOMS

The duo responsible for the DIMORESTUIDO in Milan has more than a decade of experience in interior designing. Their style is modern with historical and classic highlights, the 1800'sis a very present inspiration in all of their projects. The Italian-American partners see the success of their creations in the balance they bring each other, while one is effusive and quirky, the other is stern and charming.

Both came from furniture related backgrounds as they were the families business, Moran from Asheboro and Salci from Tuscany, the first was surrounded by classical and elegant furniture while the other grew up in a bright and colorful design environment.

See also: Warm Up Your Valentine's Day with our Unique Products

MATTEO NUNZATI:

In 2000, Nunzati opened one of the most lavish design offices in Milan, known for his luxurious and unique style, he seeks to elevate any interior by conjugation exclusive furniture and fittings.

He specializes in Spa's, residences, luxury hotels and villas and his work is spread across the world, he draws inspiration from his travels.

MAISON VALENTINA®

