"IMPERFECTIONS " Collection for Maison et Objet September 2019 Edition

SUSANA GODINHO, the textile designer behind this brand, presents this collection strongly inspired in perfect connections and precise details. Constructions are based on simple, structured weaving geometries that accentuates forms and perspectives. Highlighting a certain authenticity and reinvented textures, imperfections are desirable and will tell you a unique story. From raw colors and shapes to a more folkloric and ethnic motifs. A perfect craftsmanship Portuguese savoir-faire is revisited from a new design and innovative perspective.

"Nothing is lost... every is transformed", our collection of eco-friendly rugs which combines linen and cork with recovered and recycled cotton will surprise anyone who visit us.
