

Après la Pluie

STORY

Little spirits secretly move into the house.
They curl up in drawers and snuggle into the pillows.
Brume, Plume, Giboulée.
With their scent of damp grass and sunshine after the rain.

CONCEPT

Created by the stylist of Les Parisiennes, Lucille Michieli, the Après la Pluie (After the Rain) characters embody sweet little creatures who have come to take shelter in the bedroom after a walk in the forest. Inspired by childhood memories and her affinity for Japanese drawings, she provides children with little dream-like playmates.

Soft and comforting, they are dressed in natural, high-quality materials (linen and organic cotton) with large, super soft fleece ears.

Their contrasting colour palette teams dark grey with antique pink and subtle little touches of brick red. The gentle world their creator has made is reflected in each character's outfit: little floral bloomers, pretty gathered tunics and a scarf knotted around the sheep's neck. Not forgetting their cute little embroidered faces with a whisker here and a sweet little freckle there.

Decidedly cute little characters with sweet faces embroidered with a pointed nose that let the imagination run wild with endless stories to be told at bedtime.

Five adorable companions with their little Mousse wrapped in a soft fleece leaf...

Their expressions are embroidered in brown and copper thread and their outfits made from soft, natural fabrics.

Plume the rabbit has chosen a lovely, furry scarf, Brume the mouse has opted for a linen cape, Giboulée the cat is wearing a little rattle as a necklace, Lune the rabbit loves her gathered blouse and Nuage the sheep has a super snugly pair of dungarees!

They help stimulate the imagination and storytelling skills of little dreamers everywhere...
