ZÉ COLLECTION

Manta will be presenting a second collection in Paris at Maison et Objet. After the Melt Collection, now we will be back at the city of light with the Zé Collection designed by André Teoman. A collection of small decorative but yet functional pieces made for contemporary needs. All sculpted from a patchwork of stone leaftovers all the objects are made by givin a second life to small blocks of stones that were in the end of their life or not suitable for other works at all. With details of bronze this pieces represent the spirit animal that lives inside each of us, come visit us in Paris to find this spiritual Zoo of stone objects that will light your room.
