THE DELUXE OF PAST & PRESENT

Decoration, design, furniture, accessories, textiles, fragrances, the world of children, tableware, and many more, are exclusively displayed for every design aficionado.

Every exhibitor comes to Maison & Objet to showcase the most amazing and original creations, that always set great trends and inspirations for the year, specifically for 2020.

Although there are many styles and areas that are represented throughout this event, these same styles coexist in a multifaceted way, through the inventive show design which enlivens the spaces. This extraordinary diversity is in line with the varied expectations of global markets.

With each session, the great lifestyle platform, at the intersection of business and creativity, reveals solutions to visitors from around the world in search of uniqueness. All of these different styles and areas are carefully organised within the Maison category and Objet category.

Maison & Objet's goals are to present the best products in decoration and home interior solutions according to style. The Objet area is responsible for presenting the best objects and decorative accessories that are also displayed by product category. Every year, in January and September, Paris is surrounded by art and design.
