MICHAEL ARAM INTRODUCES NEWEST COLLECTION, IVY & OAK

New York, NY, NOVEMBER 2019—The American artist, renowned for his unique, nature-inspired home décor and tabletop accessories, introduces his newest collection, Ivy & Oak.

IVY & OAK INSPIRATION

The Ivy & Oak Collection is inspired by the picturesque hamlet built for Marie Antoinette at the palace of Versailles. The collection reflects the beauty of nature and the love of a country existence- or at least how the royal palace architects romanticized it at the whim of a young queen. The simple shape of each piece is inspired by the bucket Marie Antoinette carried as she pretended to be a milkmaid at her village refuge.

“I wanted to capture the balance between palace and country life in this collection. The delicate, winding cast ivy wraps around faux-bois etched metal elements, offering a romanticized interpretation of a simple life on the farm.”– Michael Aram.

IVY & OAK MATERIALS

ABOUT MICHAEL ARAM

Michael Aram creates beautiful and distinctive objects for the home. After taking what would later be a life-altering trip to India in 1989 where he discovered rich metalworking traditions, Aram turned his artistic vision towards craft-based design, setting up a home and workshop in New Delhi. Although he is most recognized for his signature metal gift and tabletop offerings, he also designs large-scale sculptures, furniture, lighting, home fragrance, textiles, porcelain and fine jewelry. Aram splits his time between his workshop in India and his New York City studio. Aram’s work is sold in over 60 countries, his LA and NYC flagship stores as well as department stores and specialty retailers.
