BEDROOM

Presented to the world for the first time at last year's edition of Maison et Objet, LUX XU will be showcasing an improved version of their classic bedroom during this year's event. The collection is rapidly growing and features a complete range that allows the creation of the ultimate bedrooms! Classic, luxurious and modern, the different products combine perfectly with each other.

CLOSET

LUXXU's big reveal in 2019 was a modular closet! Made for the most refined closets, this modular piece is completely customizable and offers clients the option of building their dream closet, from different modules to colors, materials and even elements.

Matched with the Waltz Valet, it's the perfect closet for any type of lifestyle, offering organization, style and a distinctive look!

No walk-in closet will ever be the same!

BATHROOM

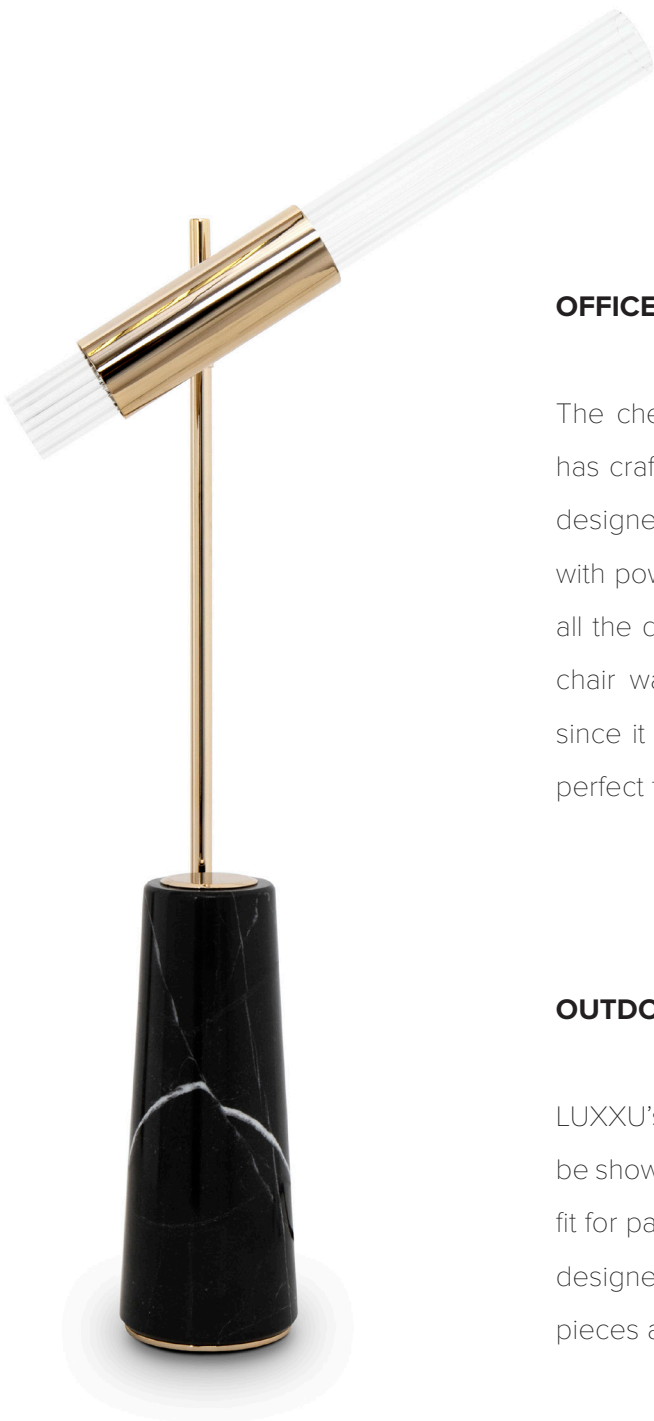

To complete the master bedroom and walk-in closet concept, LUXXU created in partnership with Maison Valentina a luxury bathroom collection. A bathtub, a free-standing wash basin and complementary accessories - including the daring Shield Mirror - are some of the designs featured in this stunning collection that is bound to turn heads.

LIVING SPACE

Modernism, extravagance and comfort could be the words chosen to describe LUXXU's living spaces. With luxury upholstery, refined side tables and daring shapes, the living room is the ultimate set up for luxury living. The dining space is as luxurious and is designed to bring an outstanding element to ordinary spaces.

OFFICE

The cherry on top has to be the office space LUXXU has crafted. A great desk is a must in all offices, so the designers created the ultimate work desk completed with power outlets and USB ports. And if a desk makes all the difference, so do office chairs. The Charla office chair was presented in 2019 and is a huge success, since it was designed with an ergonomic shape that is perfect for long work hours.

OUTDOOR

LUXXU's latest novelty - the outdoor collection - will also be showcased at Maison et Objet, with an outdoor space fit for patios, balconies and gardens. The collection was designed with weather resistant materials to ensure the pieces are as durable as stylish!
