NAME:
D. HERITAGE CABINET

DESCRIPTION:
Heavily inspired in Portuguese history and culture, the Dom Heritage is a cross between two of Boca do Lobo's most iconic design pieces, keeping the form of the Dom Manuel cabinet, with the use of the azulejo finish found on the Heritage pieces. Used to tell tales and stories, azulejo tiles became increasingly popular during King Manuel's reign, representing a landmark in Portuguese architecture. The Dom Heritage is a tribute to the country's grand epoch, as well as to its traditional artisan crafts which Boca do Lobo seek to keep alive.

PRODUCT FEATURES
This unique cabinet features a unique finishes and remarkable design elements, inspired in the classic Manueline style. The cabinet body is covered in hand painted azulejo tiles and mirrors. Its legs are made from solid mahogany, and are crafted to a traditional form, finished in high gloss brown lacquer gradient.

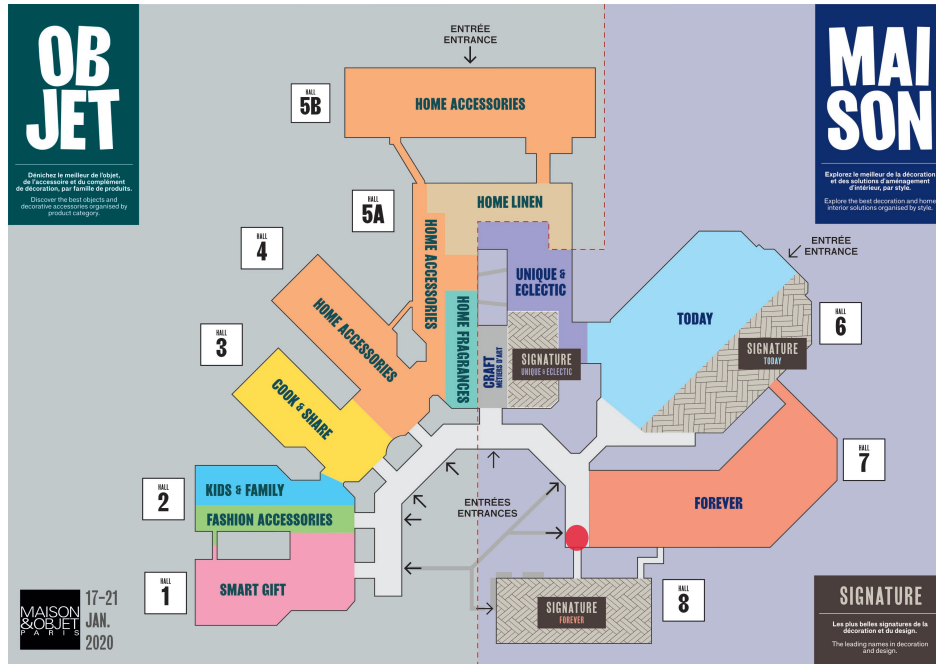

ARTS AND TECHNIQUES
Joinery, Copper leaf application, Painting, Turning, Lacquering, Varnishing.

MATERIALS AND FINISHES
Azulejo and mirror; Mahogany legs with black lacquer finish.
