

BRABBU'S APARTMENT CONCEPT AT MAISON&OBJET PARIS 2020. AN INTERIOR DESIGN TRIBUTE TO CRAFTMANSHIP.

New Products, Vibrant Artwork and a Partnership with a Young Designer.

Maison et Objet Paris 2020 has just ended. After months of preparation, all the visitors had the opportunity to see, hear, feel and scent BRABBU's Intense Way of Living.

Presenting a wide range of new products, design partnerships and new collections, BRABBU created an apartment concept with natural materials and handcrafted designs with solutions for any project or room.

Among all the products showcased at the fair, WALES Sofa II is the new addition to the collection WALES, as well as the WALES BENCH and the WALES BED. There were some products presented in a new version, such as AMIK Table Lights, ARDARA Console, LALLAN Centre Table, SEQUOIA Centre Table, AGRA II Dining Table, MECCA Side Table and KOI Side Table were presented with a new material on the top: Rainforest marble.

Fresh and new releases: GAIA Dining Chair, NAICCA Plafonier, AGRA Coffee Table, KAROO Swivel Bar Chair.

Vibrant artwork has been introduced to display BRABBU's inspiration on the world cultures, while preserving Craftmanship skills, as these art pieces where hand-painted by skilled artisans that worked for BRABBU through BRABBU's partnership with CULTURE. CULTURE is a place where artisans, plastic artists and designers meet up and keep alive the spirit of experimentation, by challenging the traditional concepts of the finest Craftmanship, and bringing to life unexpected and remarkable creations with a forward-thinking aesthetic.

But this is not all. BRABBU's is delighted and honoured to announce its partnership with the young finish designer Satu Nisu. This partnership resulted in the PADAUNG Stools to be beautifully updated with her hand-stitched fabrics. Satu Nisu creates and manufactures premium and unique textiles that added a stunning visual experience to everyone that visited the stand.
