HE BRAND WITHTHE LITTLE RE STRAP Caraceteen

The brand with the little red strap was created out of sheer determination to anticipate and meet with current market trends: A feminine youth, seeking freedom to express its newborn femininity and its unique growing personality.

The designer and creator of the Brand Iris Mizrahi has many assets such as having a unique style and a strong presence. She is adamant about producing top quality products keeping softness and comfort of an authentic French lingerie Brand.

Inspired by contrasting yet refined shades, Iris has developed her own universe, a contemporary elegant high-end lingerie collection for the teenage girl and her mother.

"CARACOTEEN SHOWS THE FRESHNESS AND FIZZINESS OF A NEW GENERATION!"

FOR THOSE TEENAGERS WITH STYLE AND A SENSE OF FASHION

Iris Mizrahi, the Parisian-born designer says: « My daughter used to love playing with lace and with my nighties, this is why I created a lingerie collection based on lace and on wonderful fabrics such as microfiber or micro-modal for precious and fashionably stylish young girls ». (not sexy): A new concept was born!

This exclusive innovative line for the teenage girl and her mother includes balconnet bras, briefs and shortys.

A new generation lingerie brand

The line contains 4 collections: « Aigue-Marine », « Tiffany », « Frou Frou» and "Corail" each representing different fabrics and shades.
