Grafiche Tassotti: the novelties dedicated to Christmas at the Digital Fair Maison & Objet 2020

Twenty new patterns of decorative paper, more than thirty new greeting cards and a wide and complete offer of high-end stationery 100% made in Italy: Grafiche Tassotti presents at the first Digital Fair Maison & Objet (4-18 September 2020) with a catalogue full of news, which includes different creative themes to meet the tastes and needs of an increasingly attentive and diversified international clientele.

Even in its digital version, the prestigious Parisian event is the ideal stage to present the collection dedicated to Christmas: the most magical period of the year is an inexhaustible source of inspiration for Tassotti, always able to reinterpret it and amaze with unique and original patterns of decorative paper, destined to dictate the trend.

Examples are the refined Betulle a mezzanotte, with branches that stand out against a suggestive night sky dotted with golden stars, and the more traditional Remondini Losanga, a classic motif played on warm and typically Christmas tones.

The original Bosco dei sogni pattern represents Christmas in a Nordic style: turquoise background, gold finishes and a touch of red give life to an enchanted and fairy tale atmosphere.

A theme, that of the forest, which is also repeated in large and small cards, which feature subjects such as reindeer, gnomes and hares as protagonists. More playful and fun, the Schiaccianoci, inspired by the ballet of the same name, features the typical colors of the Christmas tradition.

Recognized throughout the world as the most suitable for multiple uses, Tassotti paper is printed exclusively in sheets, on an opaque, ecological and acid free support, and is perfect not only for preparing elegant gift boxes but also for being used in origami, in decoupage, in scrapbooking.

Tassotti paper is available in a complete range of items: diaries, calendars, greeting cards, gift tags, labels, envelopes and notebooks.

The brand-new set of self-mounted gift box with lid is entirely hand-made in cardboard 300 gr., in three different sizes. Available in assorted subjects from the Tassotti collection, they are the light and perfect cases of the most precious gifts or they themselves become gifts. Supplied with a coordinated envelope, which can accompany the package or contain tickets and special thoughts.
