Discover more about this lavish project to provide a classy and exclusive temper to your inspiring magazine. The fusion of these two matchy collections sets an unparalleled sophistication and grace. The handmade gold-plated brass, as well as the perfect balance of cutting-edge design in addition to a contemporary approach, grant this project a remarkable display of modern interior luxury.

HALO SUSPENSION

Halo's are optical phenomenon's that occur when tiny ice crystals refract and reflect the sun or moon's light, creating splendid circles of light in the atmosphere. They are rare and prized events of delicate beauty that are simply astonishing.

The Halo Suspension, made solely with gold-plated brass, is a display of modern inspiration that was designed for those who want a simple and elegant lighting fixture without giving up charm and refinement.

An option that is simple yet sophisticated, being the perfect addition for contemporary or modern interior designs in both residential or commercial spaces. Likewise, it isn't restrictive and will look amazing in any area of the house.

A PROJECT TO REMEMBER

FLUSSO WALL LAMP

With its unique design formed by different layers, the shape gives the idea of a continuous flow, Flusso wall lamp adds a touch of glamour to any home interior and a feeling of wonder to the most exquisite décors.

Flusso's contemporary light fixtures link dance to lighting, shaping spectacular and extravagant lighting design. All gold-plated brass tubes are shaped and assembled by hand.

This extremely luxurious wall sconce is perfect for many different setups, like a big hotel hallway to create an explosive visual inspiration, or a lavishing living-room, luxurious dining rooms or bedrooms as it provides a soft and warm light through its layers that afford a romantic ambiance to any setting.
