

When we say Home. The word reflects comfort Love and Security.

After Pandemic Covid 19 we realised how essential it is to have a comfortable and cosy home. Maison and Objet is always bringing an opportunity to all designers' entrepreneurs and companies to exhibit their best talent experience and knowledge.

To share with all in this continuation our company Ishela in guidance of our designer and creative director Manish Narvania and all team has launched range of very exclusive and different handmade Burmese Rattan for day to day use and exquisite range in table décor which is already displayed at MOM site and www.ishela.com . We look forward for your love and appreciation for our exclusive range.
