

MIYAVIE x biscuit head

ANYWAY

Now that teleworking has become a part of a new lifestyle, you may be spending more time sitting at your desk. Therefore, MIYAVIE is pleased to announce the portable cushion square "ANYWAY", a PC case that utilizes the material characteristics that are excellent in body pressure dispersion. Not only does it reduce fatigue in indoor scenes such as desk work due to its excellent cushioning properties and comfort, but the "ANYWAY" that is light and easy to carry can also be used comfortably as a cushion mat even outdoors such as camping and sports. It is made of durable and waterproof Cordura nylon that the US military also uses, so it has excellent durability and can be enjoyed in various scenes according to the lifestyle.
