

OCTAEVO's iconic paper vases are coming now in new shapes and prints for you to explore and, more importantly, enjoy.

Be bold, wild and wonderful! The new "Riviera Paper Vases" are all about expression, positive vibes and serve as the uplifting design statement your home needs.

November 2020. The starting point for the new, happy Riviera Paper Vase collection? An adoration of '60s décor, its breathtakingly use of vivid colours and alluring shapes.

Bright pink and even brighter tangerine with aqua accents transcend positive energy and optimism, while delicate lines in gold add a sophisticated touch that will make every design aficionado swoon.

Handmade entirely in water resistant paper, the vases present a new way to arrange flowers and apply an added functionality through their possibility to recycle plastic. Simply open the paper vase by gently pushing in the edges and slip it over a plastic bottle. Et voilà!

Place the vase on the dining table, in a windowsill or side table for a characterful design object that is unique in both its function and expression – and that pays homage to the most stylish decade ever.

About OCTAEVO

From their studio in the center of Barcelona, OCTAEVO creates thoughtful design objects for contemporary living that are 100% inspired by the Mediterranean. Each piece is made to be held close, designed to inspire and to brighten up your day-to-day.

Established in 2013 by Marcel Baer, the firm has already become a benchmark of decoration and product design. Swiss born with Spanish roots, graphic designer and creative director Baer founded the brand inspired by his childhood memories.

The family album and cherished moments found in photographs and Super 8 movies of his family's voyages in the 60s along the Mediterranean coast, as well as the stories told by his father who worked at high seas, define the aesthetic universe of OCTAEVO.

Today, Baer seeks in each piece the perfect balance between the latest technology and traditional craftsmanship. With hundreds of points of sale throughout the world, OCTAEVO is taking part in the most prominent fairs each season and enjoys the favor of the national and international press.
