Grafiche Tassotti presents the 2021 collection: natural elements and colour for moments of "extraordinary everyday life".

Flowers, plants and lots of colour: the 2021 Grafiche Tassotti collection is as always in step with the most current international trends and draws beauty and liveliness from botanical and natural elements.

Inspirations that, transferred to paper, give shape to small masterpieces of craftsmanship, precious, beautiful to use, which acquire a value that goes beyond their specific function.

Ten new patterns of decorative paper, cards, boxes and stationery items make up a collection of exclusive objects, to respond to the growing need to make the spaces of one's home pleasant and distinctive, protagonists of the most diverse daily activities.

Study, work, but not only: spending more time at home also means being able to dedicate yourself to your hobbies. Like writing, origami, découpage and scrapbooking, to rediscover the pleasure of making creative, unique and original objects with your own hands.

Rosé, apricot, orange, but also pastel shades and ton-sur-ton patterns: colour is the true protagonist of the new patterns of Tassotti multipurpose paper, which with its exclusive quality and the numerous patterns available is the ideal starting point for every creative project. Made exclusively in the Bassano del Grappa printing house, it is sheet printed with highly light-fast, vegetable-based inks and on a hand-use, opaque, ecological and FSC-certified support. Among the novelties for 2021 stands out Ramage, the new refined floral motif that's been added to the numerous proposals inspired by botanical elements. The most classic Remondinian subjects can not be missing, too: in line with the latest trends Pantone 2021 colors dominate with the liveliness of yellow, also in combination with natural motifs, and the minimalism of gray, in different shades.

Themes and patterns that are also declined in greeting cards and in a complete range of stationery items, perfect for expressing your taste even in the workplace dedicated to smart working and study: diaries, calendars, labels, envelopes and notebooks, available in the hardcover version or with staples. And then the calligraphy kits to practice the art of writing and the origami kits, perfect allies for those who love to decorate the house and the table with originality. The offer is completed by self-assembling boxes in 300 gr cardboard with lid, proposed in three sizes and complete with matching envelope. Available in assorted patterns taken from the Tassotti collection, they are the keepers of the most precious gifts or become themselves a gift.
