

MORE GREENS ON THE TABLE

The mini chopper and the flexible DoubleUp cutting board are the two new products being launched in spring as part of Eva Solo's eco-friendly Green tools series, in which up to 50% of the plastic has been replaced with composite. The mini chopper, which is not power-operated, makes light work of serving fresh vegetables in our busy daily lives. The flexible DoubleUp cutting board can be configured for both small and large meals. It bends in the middle, so that chopped vegetables can be directed straight into the salad bowl or saucepan.

Green tool mini chopper

Chop, mix and whisk sustainably without using any electricity! Operated using a practical drawstring, it's quick, efficient and easy to chop vegetables and whip cream. Place the ingredients in the container, position the lid and pull the string. The mini chopper is manually operated, so it's easy to keep an eye on progress. The more times you pull the string, the more finely chopped the contents. The mini chopper comes with an extra attachment for whipping e.g. cream, milk or egg whites. The container and attachments are dishwasher-safe, while the lid needs to be washed in hot water and soap.

The container and attachments are dishwasher-safe, while the lid needs to be washed by hand.
