NEW MOTIF « BORIS & DORIS »

BORIS & DORIS

“Two playful squirrels chasing each other around a Birch tree trunk, a classic scene that I have seen many times.

Squirrels often bury nuts and seeds for later consumption. Many times they do not remember where they hid them so the nuts and seeds they lose will become new trees and plants.

One of mother nature’s very clever ways to promote regeneration and new life.

PRESS RELEASE

Charlotte Nicolin

CHARLOTTE NICOLIN

Charlotte Nicolin is a Swedish artist living in the Stockholm archipelago. She is an avid traveller and spends a lot of time in nature studying its diversity, both fauna and flora. It has led her to want to share her love of animals with the world. With keen awareness, she shows their fragility and individual expressions, often with a touch of humor.

Her work is based on the four fundamental elements of the world that are also found in astrology: Fire, Earth, Water and Air.

Fire characterizes the artist who is passionate about nature and has a commitment to preserve it. Earth is represented by wild animals as well as domestic ones. Air is defined by birds. And finally, Water is represented by amphibians and marine mammals often with an inquiring glance.

Charlotte Nicolin reproduces her original large format artwork on a number of interior decoration and gift items, such as art prints, trays, textiles, stationary, mugs, coasters.

All products are carefully chosen and proofed by Charlotte and designed for customers looking for unique articles. Most of the production is based in Europe and Sweden and is eco certified.

Over the years, Charlotte's style has varied, but her vision and goals have only grown stronger. With her platform, she strives to raise awareness about and improve animal welfare and our increasingly fragile ecosystems.

Charlotte also collaborates with various environmental organizations.

To date, Nicolin offers around 100 motifs on her products for sale in more than four hundred shops mostly in Europe.

Additionally, the artist has a truly charming shop in the Old Town in Stockholm; Köpmangatan 3, 11131 Stockholm.
