ARTIST - WOOD SCULPTOR

An inventory "à la Prévert"

The Great Beetle, the Metamorphosis of the Butterfly, the Black Widow, Happiness of the Day, the Ingenus... Thierry Laudren's new collection is his ode to the world of the living. This translates into anthropomorphic furniture, woodwork inspired by nature, a noble material.

All these works are essentially made of oak. Thierry Laudren's approach is part of a French tradition of decorative arts. His workshop contributes to the perpetuation of excellent craftsmanship, while creating a unique, elegant and poetic universe. Perhaps this is what luxury is all about.

Thanks to his training as a woodcarver at the Ecole Boulle (Paris) and his professional career, the artist also participates in the restoration of historical monuments in Brittany (France).
