"I dreamt of this collection as an Ode to Nature, a moment of eternity" – Florence Lafragette, President and Artistic Director

Feet on the ground, head in the stars, the Fall-Winter 2021 collection leaves room to wonder. From the infinitely large to the infinitely small, myths of yesterday with today's challenge, from heritage to the supernatural, serenity mingles with dreams to illuminate the future. In the line of sight? Beautiful horizons.

A SINGULAR AND RESPONSIBLE APPROACH

Beyond a collection, it is first of all an approach. Company of Artistic Heritage, Maison Petrusse designs, interprets, and declines through the magic of weaving and color, a palette inspired by the world of art and its universe. Responsible Company, anchored in its time, she creates with passion and commitment and acts with respect for our environment. Connected Company, Petrusse likes to exchange, create links and share its know-how.

A VIBRANT TRIBUTE TO NATURE AND HERITAGE

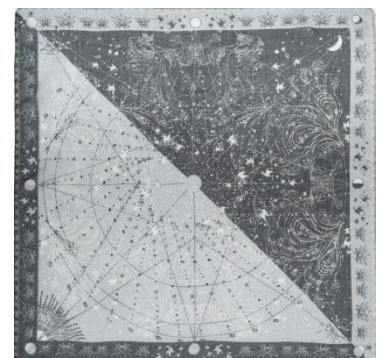

In this deliberately warm collection, rich in links and stories, Maison Petrusse dives in the depths of the world's soul with vibrant, intense, reflective colors. Like men and women who she accompanies, reveals, sublimates with a stole, a scarf with its creations.

Like the caress of foliage, a protective and reassuring breath, soft and responsible materials come to life. Inspired by the stones of Château Mauriac, this green setting, synonymous with art and literature forever, where Petrusse's Ateliers are located.

A FULLY DEDICATED COLLECTION TO MEN

Attentive to men's needs and desire for softness, quality, large formats, Maison Petrusse has imagined for them a fully dedicated collection. A vibrant tribute to its values and its clients. A tribute to art, which, carried against us like a totem pole, accompanies us in key moments in life and pushes us to reveal ourselves.

A truly contemporary range, imbued with noble materials, the Fall-Winter 2021 collection leaves in its wake an assertive style and a fragrance of eternity. The entire collection will be available from August with exclusive launches in June in our stores and on our e-shop.

ENTER PETRUSSE'S DREAM...

For more than 20 years, Petrusse has been cultivating excellence in the heart of the Bordeaux vineyard and composes stoles with passion. Creativity and the world of Art are its pigment. Inspired by artists, she has forged a free spirit and a vibrant signature, where color tirelessly serves emotion and expression. In line of sight? Beautiful horizons. More than ever the solidarity to think about the future.
