

Milano Bedding presents Pandora, the new pop fabrics for decorative cushions for sofas and beds

--

Comfort, craftsmanship and geometric retro patterns revisited in contemporary key

Milano Bedding enriches its sofa beds and beds with new decorative cushions, expertly made by the seamstresses that work for the brand, a symbol of all-Italian craftsmanship.

The cushions are among the elements that most personalize the living room and the bedroom, making the furnishings stand out, both in combination and in chromatic contrast.

To make every room even more unique, to enliven much more sofa beds and beds, Milano Bedding therefore presents these soft and comfortable accessories in the new Pandora fabrics, featuring vibrant patterns and wavy lines, which form a geometric pattern that recalls retro, optical and pop graphic signs, revisited in a contemporary key, also thanks to a delicate color palette and energetic at the same time.

Available in seven chromatic variations and in several dimensions, with polyester or down filling, Milano Bedding cushions are versatile and combine functionality and aesthetics, a common thread that also identifies the company sofa beds and beds.

The Pandora fabrics are made of viscose and polyester of excellent quality, resistant, practical, soft and easy to maintain materials.

Follow us

