MODERN CHIC RESIDENTIAL DESIGN

A LUXURY PROJECT BY WUHAN BAIYUE ZHUMEI
DESIGN OFFICE

Welcome to "Yunting, Wuhan Tiandithe" a luxurious top riverside 550 sqm mansion in Wuhan (China), that is considered to be one of the most coveted home designs due to its unique styling and bespoke furniture and lighting designs. This is a place where sophistication and design excellence meets the best of the luxury lifestyle.

The entire residential design was fully furnished with the special pieces of the best luxury design brands, such as DelightFULL, Tom Dixon, Frato, Cassina, B&B ITALIA, Visionnaire, Poliform, Flos, and Minotti. The interior design was based on a sophisticated neutral color palette that is later enhanced with luxurious golden details.

The entire interior design project of this modern chic residence was created by the creative team from Wuhan Wang Xiaodong Design Office, founded by Mr. Wang Xiaodong in 2013.

When thinking about the first concept of this residential design, Wang Xiaodong wanted to capture sophistication and luxury with a soft and neutral color palette. By playing with different shades of grey as the main color palette, the renowned interior designer later introduced some soft "pops of colors" and high-end golden details to elevate the entire design into one of the most chic and coveted residences in town.

As you step inside the luxurious residential design, you will see that Wang Xiaodong decided to make the main space open so that each furniture piece and lighting design could shine without overpowering each other. This open space design includes the main living room and a small piano corner (that adds another touch of character to the design) between the main living space and dining room area.

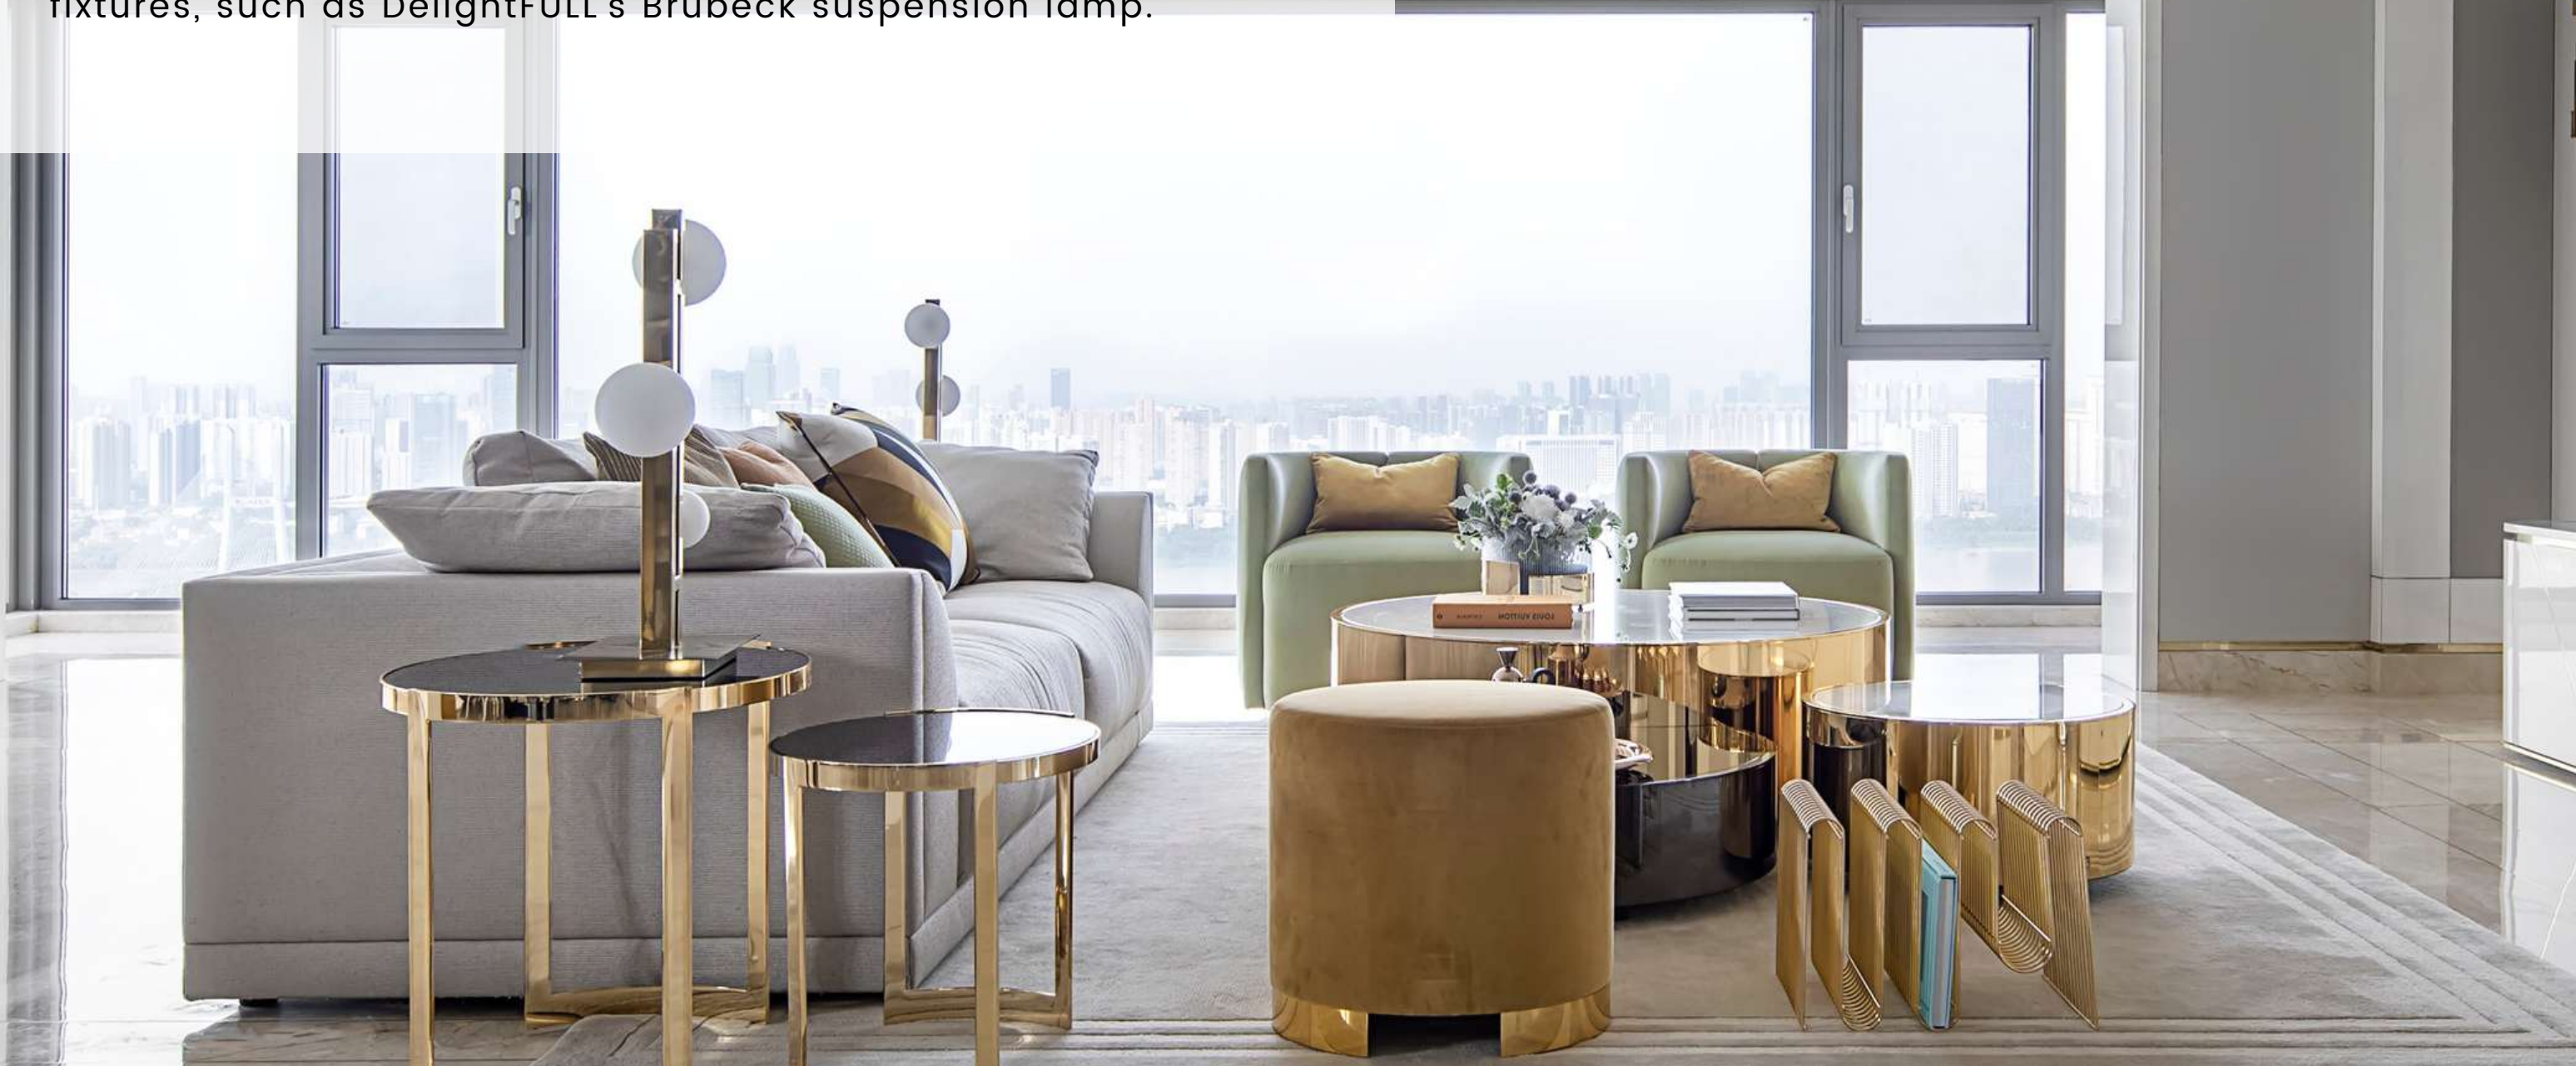

WANG XIAODONG

As you look inside this fabulous inspiration you'll see that this is the true representation of the luxury design, due to its unique colors, bespoke furnishings, and glamorous lighting combinations, as you can see through the main living room area.

This is one of the most beautiful areas of the "Yunting, Wuhan Tiandithe" residence. The soothing grey color tones of the base of the interior design are complemented with some unique pastel green upholstery details and luxurious golden fixtures, such as DelightFULL's Brubeck suspension lamp.

BRUBECK SUSPENSION

Brubeck is a mid-century modern chandelier inspired by one of the foremost exponents of cool jazz: Dave Brubeck. This unique lighting design represents the sophistication and finesse of the American jazz pianist, displaying a very luxurious feeling. DelightFULL's skilled artisans handmade this round chandelier in brass, covering it with a gold-plated finish, which can be customized in multiple other finishes. The result of this outstanding creation is a functional chandelier with sculptural shapes.

This was the perfect lighting choice to create a statement in the main living room project, due to its power to elevate the look and complement the rest of the gold decor accessories, such as the side tables and wall lamps.

This modern chic residential design project flows from the beginning to the end in a beautiful and natural way, since it was based on a trendy color palette, where the multiple shades of grey are the star.

Keeping the same sophisticated neutral look in the master bedroom design, the renowned Wang Xiaodong wanted to spike the client's interest with a unique yet luxurious detail that really made the difference.

GALLIANO WALL LAMP

When thinking about the lighting options of the bedroom area the interior designer decided to go with a beautiful silver plated Galliano wall lamp standing on top of the side tables.

DelightFULL's Galliano wall piece, a special modern lighting design that features a minimalist style and produces a unique effect when you see light being cast through its pipes. Like any other of the brand's products the Galliano fixture can be customized in any color or finish, so it's no coincidence that this wall lamp is one of DelightFULL's top best sellers.

As we could see throughout these incredible interiors, this unique mix of metals combination and luxurious furniture and lighting choices are what makes this modern chic residential design one of the most trendsetting projects in China.
