

Picnic baskets: Our selection for the fall !

September also announces the beginning of autumn! Nature loses its greenery and buds start to form. The landscapes are tinged with warm shades and offer a harmony of red, orange and yellow colors. To take advantage of this spectacle offered by nature, a picnic remains the ideal activity! In order to have a convivial lunch on the crisp leaves of autumn, Les Jardins de la Comtesse suggest you to discover their selection of natural wicker picnic baskets for this season.

Picnic baskets in the colours of autumn leaves !

The Montmartre picnic basket, for walks in the forest

This basket is made of natural wicker with two raffia ropes that give it a very rustic look. With its green, brown, burgundy, black and beige striped fabric, it fits perfectly with the forest atmosphere. As autumn is also the time of the mushroom, nut and chestnut harvest, this basket will allow you to enjoy a delicious picnic break while picking.

The Palais-Royal basket, specially designed for convivial picnics

The Palais-Royal basket is a must-have for family outings during the autumn. Indeed, its great advantage is that it has everything you need to keep food and drinks warm: a removable isothermal compartment, 4 aluminium coffee cups and a large isothermal aluminium bottle.

With its interior lined with beige fabric and brown leatherette straps and handles, it fits perfectly into the autumn theme!

The Angers picnic basket, for gourmet picnics

The Angers basket is getting a makeover! With larger plates than the old model, it will be even more convenient to picnic. The originality of this basket lies in its unique vertical weave. With its grey wicker and brown leatherette straps, it will be the perfect accessory for autumn picnics! In order to easily carry your bottle and keep it at the right temperature, it has a removable external insulated bottle holder. Thanks to its handle and its adjustable shoulder strap, it is easy to carry.

The Trianon basket, for chic picnics

With its washable tartan fabric, the Trianon basket blends in perfectly with the autumn countryside. Its leather strap, straps and handles make it a particularly luxurious basket. Its insulated base keeps food cool or warm, and its cutlery is even stored in a small case with the same design as the basket. It is available in 2, 4 and 6 person sizes, making it easy to enjoy a picnic with friends, family or loved ones!

The Tuileries basket, for romantic picnics

Autumn, also known as "the season of love", is the perfect time for romantic picnics. With its round shape reminiscent of a real love nest, the Tuileries basket has been specially designed for romantic picnics. It's even deep enough to hold a bottle of champagne, so you can toast the two of you under the glowing leaves.

"Tuileries" picnic basket 2 people : £92,57

The Saint-Michel basket, a very practical small size for picnics

This little wicker picnic basket is very practical to take for a walk in the forest. Its hessian interior adds a nice touch of charm and softness! Compact and complete, it is easy to put on the luggage rack of a bicycle or to slip into the boot of a car. Particularly light and equipped with a large strap, it is very easy to carry by hand.

About the Brand

The French brand Les Jardins de la Comtesse was launched in 2011. Wishing to highlight the art of outdoor living, it quickly positioned itself as the specialist and partner for outdoor lunches. The brand has become an expert in chic picnics thanks to its baskets with elegant and refined designs that come in several sizes. Each basket is complete for maximum comfort. The wicker is hand-woven in certified eco-responsible workplaces, which makes its baskets environmentally friendly products. To accompany the picnic, Les Jardins de la Comtesse offers other equally refined products such as cotton tablecloths with waterproof backing specially designed for outdoor use, which are just as suitable for a picnic as they are for a garden table; but the brand provides with scarves, stoles and plaids for cooler meals. For lunches on the terrace, a collection of pure melamine tableware in shimmering colours completes their offer for the garden and outdoors : MelARTmine Collection since 2018. The range is composed of all the service necessary to make a beautiful table (deep and flat plates, round and rectangular dishes, trays, salad bowls and their cutlery, placemats...).

Combining esthetics and practicality, this is the niche chosen by Les Jardins de la Comtesse to make lunches with friends or family pure moments of sharing and conviviality !
