

SURFACES TO ADMIRE: MAISON VALENTINA'S FINEST SELECTIONS

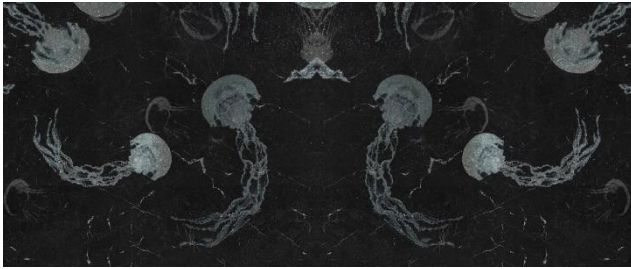

Maison Valentina is proud to present its enchanting collection of dazzling surfaces that will bring great sophistication to any bathroom wall.

These amazing items are water-resistant and highly durable due to the conception with two fantastic aluminum sheets and polyethylene core, carefully digitally designed and built using handcrafted techniques that award it an exclusiveness that is hard to find elsewhere. However, the highlight of these product's best characteristics is their functionality, being easily applicable to any wall or surface, they are perfect to use as one remodels their home.

With its impressive textures and various themes, the brand's collection of surfaces will convey sensorial experiences and certainly leave a lasting impression.

Abism Jellyfish Surface

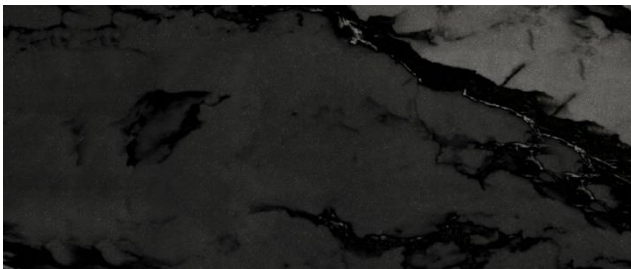

This amazing surface was meticulously hand-painted and blended with digital art, to create the sophisticated look of black tones that can be seen in the image. Its marble texture and the usage of jellyfishes as a theme offer up a modern aesthetic to the bathroom wall, and together with its water-resistant capabilities, the bathroom will get a functional and beautifully luxurious look.

Black Paramount Surface

Black Paramount Surface was made using advanced graphics and some incredible handmade artistic choices to closely resemble the look of a large piece of black marble. The luxurious aesthetic of this panel, with two fantastic aluminum sheets and a polyethylene core to strengthen its durability, makes it the surface everyone wishes to have in their private bathrooms

Cristal Larzac Surface

Inspired by the French Larzac Desert, this artful pane was made to resemble a large slab of marble. Created using a technique of handcrafted details coupled with the best digital art technology and two aluminum sheets with a polyethylene core named Reymond, this is a sophisticated and unparalleled item that many people dream of owning.

Snow Hanna Surface

Snow Hanna mixes the arts of digital design and handcrafted goods, built with two aluminum sheets and a polyethylene core named Reynobond. This beautiful and water-resistant surface merges white and brown colors to closely resemble the dazzling texture of the highest quality marble.
