

A SENSORIAL AND UNIQUE EXPERIENCE WITH OUR NEW DIAMOND BATHTUBS

Maison Valentina aims to offer the customers an introspective moment and a unique experience, based on opulent and sophisticated bathroom furniture, providing a truly sensory time that ends in a moment of inner care and full contemplation.

The brand believes that a luxurious and exclusive bathroom will be able to awake people's senses and make them feel like somewhere else, so Maison Valentina's skilled craftsmen focus on exceeding the expectations and desires for stunning products.

Therefore, this search for innovation and functionality led to the decision of expanding the Diamond Family, offering the customer's a more diverse and luxurious range of options to their houses or hospitality project.

Diamond Collection, with the style of a precious jewel, makes a splash in every bathroom design. These new bathtubs will be no exception, given the breathtaking design combined with the beauty of gloss faux-marble painting, that will give a unique twist to interior design projects and upgrade the bathroom at the same time.
