

THE SMART CHOPPING BOARD CHOICE

A chopping board made of wood is appealing, timeless and eco-friendly. The Eva Solo Green tools range is launching a non-slip chopping board made of sturdy FSC®-certified bamboo that withstands daily use. The chopping board comes with or without a juice groove so both meat and seasonal vegetables can be transformed into tasty meals. The elegant board will also soon find its way onto the dining table, where it can be used as a platter for serving tapas, bread and vegetables. So, go for the healthy options with this chopping board that makes it easy to go greener in the kitchen. Clean by hand in hot soapy water. Maintain by oiling regularly.
