Marble & Knitting & Embroidery & Marine

Our Story

Eros Design is established by Industrial Engineer Okşan Özdeker in 2018, after 20 years of professional experience in two biggest companies of Turkey as Quality Control and Assurance Leader. We are a woman owned company.

SHANS is the first brand of Eros Design. With the background of Quality we aim to provide our customers best quality. Our purpose is to introduce and show the pure beauty of fantastic marble both in pure and processed ways and increase the usage and awareness in daily life. The glory and beauty of marble is supported also with accesories if required. Production can be made in special dimensions as custom made.

SHANS is being developed in home concepts as of 2021 summer. Rope based and knitted accesories, embroidered pillows and bags and marine accesories are our new products.

SHANS is proud of giving support to local production, to ladies who are our main supporters in embroidery knitting, marine and rope production and the other best outcome is that we convey 6 % of our income to social responsibility projects mainly TEV, Darülşafaka, Anadolu'da Kızım var which gives scholarship to students.
