

The “Menina” dressed in black leather with red stitching for Maison & Objet Show

Felipao and Sol & Luna: The fusion of Art and Leather

Sol & Luna and Felipao present in exclusive the iconic polyhedral Menina designed by Felipao, lined in black leather by Sol & Luna.

Paris, March 2022. Friendship and mutual admiration for crafts and art result in a collaboration between the artist Felipao and Carolina Sánchez de Movellán from Sol & Luna.

The renowned artist and sculptor, Felipao and the company Sol & Luna known in the leather art sector, have produced a limited edition of the Iconic Menina designed by Felipao but, this time, covered from head to toe in leather by the artisans of Sol & Luna.

It is the first polyhedral Menina in the world, its body is built on 448 faces. No artist had used this technique so far to interpret the Velazquez icon.

Felipao is an artist who feels very comfortable giving life to sculptures and any object. Carolina Sánchez from Movellán from Sol & Luna says: "The Art of Leather, together with the innovative design of Felipao, makes the Menina an iconic piece".

The Menina from Felipao is an innovative interpretation adapted to the 21st century. Available in two sizes: 32cm and 52cm.
